Name _____

Your Feelings About Childhood...

1. What I like most about children...

2. What I like least about children...

3. Children need parents to care for them because...

4. So far, most of my knowledge about children has come from...

5. The hardest thing for a child to learn is...

6. One thing I learned as a child that I've never forgotten is...

7. One thing I don't understand about children is why they...

8. To me, a newborn baby is...

9. When I am with children, I...

10. What I would do differently if I could be a child all over again…

11. My favorite activity as a child was...

12. One thing I hope to learn in this class is...

List 6 experiences that you remember from childhood, write a short sentence explaining how each of these experiences has affected your life.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

Pick one and write your feelings about it, how it has shaped your personality, and how you think it will affect your parenting philosophy (needs to be ½ a page).